

Press Release

Arabic Programming on WNQM-1300 AM

For Immediate Release 11 December 2001
POC: George McClintock

WNQM-1300 in Nashville, TN is airing two special radio messages, one about Muslims and one about their Islamic faith.

The first program is a look at the Islamic faith. The 15-minute program is hosted by Dr. Richard Shriver, a Professor of Philosophy and Religion at Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tennessee. Dr. Shriver is also an ordained Minister in the United Methodist Church. Dr. Shriver, who teaches such subjects as comparative religions, will be discussing basic historical facts and theological doctrines of the Islamic Faith.

This special radio program about the Islamic faith will be aired on WNQM as follows: Saturday, Dec 22nd and 29th at 8:00AM and 7:00PM. Also Sunday Dec 23rd and 30th at 4:00PM.

The second program, which originally aired last month, is being re-aired again, by popular demand. It is hosted by Timothy Abraham, a former Muslim. Timothy, was raised in the Delta region of Egypt as a fundamentalist Muslim, but eventually came to the US and became a Christian. "Timothy Abraham Ministries" is now devoted to reaching Muslims for the Lord and sharing with them the Gospel of Christ. This English language program is called "Jihad In Light Of the Quran & The Hadith."

Muslim's represent 1/5 of the world's population and are the followers of Islam, a religion that emerged late in the 6th century. It began with a man named Mohammed who wrote the Quran, the Muslim holy book.

This special radio program about Muslims will be aired on WNQM as follows: Saturday, Dec 15th & 22nd at 1:00PM. Also Sunday Dec 16th & 23rd at 1:00PM.

WNQM is the sister station to WWCR (World Wide Christian Radio) which serves Europe, Middle East and Africa on Shortwave from Nashville, Tennessee.

[Previous]