Adam Lock: 10 Year Service Award

For Immediate Release 14 December 2001
POC: George McClintock

George McClintock, General Manager of WNQM and WWCR handed to Adam W. Lock, Sr. a 10-year recognition service award in a special meeting. Mr. Lock has worked with outstanding dedication and achievement for the last 10 years as Program Director and then Operations Manager for World Wide Christian Radio (WWCR).

Mr. Lock is a 1988 graduate of Austin Peay State University with a BS in Engineering Technology. He has been a resident of the Middle Tennessee area for 19 years and continues furthering his education through seminars and extension courses in management, radio broadcasting and computer science.

Mr. Lock's radio experience spans back to the mid 70's, starting as a shortwave listener and subsequently as a licensed General Class Amateur Radio Operator. He has been working inside the radio industry for over 15 years and held a variety of other positions, prior to his employment at WWCR, including News Director, Public Service Director and DJ.
